

O, God who died for our transgressions, give me strength to resist, patience to suffer, and constancy to persevere, for I have not yet resisted, to the point of shedding my blood, as thou have, but I am weak, and you are strong, I am foolish, yet you are wise, aide me, O God, in my struggles, help me, O God, in my trials. Go where I wilt, seek whatsoever I desire, yet I shalt not find a higher way above, nor a safer way below, than the way of the holy cross. Guide me in that way, O Father, Amen.

"Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died--more than that, who was raised to life--is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?" Romans 8:34&35

Sports

THIS IS SERIOUS FUN

REAL MEN DON'T WEAR BLACK, they play intramural football. Martin Flynn and Brian Richey show themselves to be prime specimens as they demonstrate their superior sporting techniques on the field.

The 1993 fall intramural sports brought out the largest men's football draft in the history of NNC. There were eight teams picked in the draft and four freshmen teams. With twelve teams altogether, intramural program coordinators were excited to get the games under way. Intramural director Jay Hughes commented, "I don't remember there ever being more teams." Due to the large number of teams, the league was divided into the AFC conference and the NFC conference. The championship game was between the winners of each conference.

In the first week of the season the opening game featured the Steelers destroying the Saints 48-6. The big game of the first week was when the Cowboys met the Lions. The Lions jumped into the lead early on in the game and went on to win 26-20.

The second week included the match up between the Lions and the Jets. Both had come from big wins the previous week, but the Lions pulled off an exciting 19-14 victory. The Cowboys bounced back from their previous loss with a shutout victory over the Saints 34-0. The Steelers improved their record to 2-0 with a devastating 32-6 victory over the Bills. In the West Division, the Seahawks upped their record to 2-0 with a win over the 49ers 12-7.

In the third week of the season, the Seahawks improved their record 3-0 with a 28-20 win over the Broncos, now with a record of 0-3. That victory put the Seahawks into a tie for first place with the Chiefs, who won by forfeit over the Chargers as they moved into the first round of the play-offs. In the East Division the Steelers, now 2-1, were tied for second along with the Cowboys, also with a record of 2-1. The Jets were tied for second after winning by forfeit over the "Saints." The Lions took first place with an undefeated record of 3-0 after winning by forfeit over the Bills.

The first round of play-offs featured the undefeated Seahawks scraping by with a 14-12 win over the Steelers. In the next game the Cowboys destroyed the Raiders 54-8 setting the Cowboys up to play the Seahawks in the second round of play-offs. On the other side of the bracket the Lions upped their record to 5-1 with the Broncos' forfeit. The Jets upset the Chiefs 12-6, putting the Jets up against the Lions for the final round of the play-offs.

In the second round of play-offs, the Seahawks advanced with a 12-8 win over the Cowboys. In the second game the Lions held on to beat the Jets 13-12, moving both the Seahawks and the Lions into the championship game.

In the championship game between the Lions and the Seahawks the lead bounced back and forth throughout the game, and when time ran out the score was tied 14-14. In overtime the Lions pushed through to score two touchdowns to end the game and the season with a 26-14 victory.

SLASH AND SLAM. Freshman Paul Stevenson cuts past an ominous lineman on his way to the goal posts. This year, instead of having teams with just freshmen, they decided to divide the freshmen players among the upper-classmen teams.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, good evening and welcome to a battle of the ages right here in Nampa, Idaho. In the right corner weighing in at 170, we have Brian Early, and in the left corner we have Dave Tisdale weighing in at an even 250. Who will arise and claim the heavyweight intramural football championship this year?

UNDERESTIMATED SPEED. Vince Bos lives for the touchdown. Although NFL scouts don't seek talent at intramural football games, players find that it's not if they win or lose that's important, it's how dirty you can get.

The 1993 soccer team looked forward to a season of excellence with the addition of 10 new players, an improved 11 returning lettermen, and Head Coach David Diehl in his second season as NNC's soccer coach. The returning lettermen were led by senior captain, two time All- District and NAIA Academic All-American, Carlos Antras. The remaining four seniors, Rod Malcom, Eddie Miles, Rob Lawler, and Mike Wood, were the front runners for the team. Coach Diehl commented, "these seniors are high quality players that played a major role in the squad." The returning players; Juniors Colby Halker and Brian Murphy; Sophomores Chucky BonDurant, Kevin Saul, Mark Pond, and Tim Whetstone contributed their hard work and talent to the team. Communication and cooperation were a priority from the very beginning because of the unusually large 21-member squad.

After a slow start to the season, the team scored a 3-2 overtime victory over Albertson College of Idaho. The soccer team faced a rough early schedule, losing their first four games without scoring a goal. The first Albertson victory since 1988, did a lot for the team's morale. As Coach Diehl put it, "This game was a real mental victory for us. Since we had not won any games, we needed a mental lift to get us going."

Despite their first victory over AC of I, the second time they met, the Crusaders fell in an intense contested match, Albertson came out on top 1-0. Coach Diehl remarked, "We need to start playing 90 minutes of intense soccer, rather than just 45," referring to their losses.

The soccer team opened district play winning one of two home games. They beat Linfield 5-1. Captain Carlos Antras was in the middle of most of the scoring with two goals and two assists. Rod Malcom and Brian Murphy added two more first half goals, and Colby Halker scored NNC's final goal in the second half. Malcom commented, "For the first time all year we played like we were capable of playing." After their win, however, the Crusaders fell to George Fox 5-0. The effort was there, but the execution of the offense was not. The following district games were lost to Concordia 5-0 and Willamette 4-0.

The NNC soccer team ended a long season full of disappointing losses. The team lost to Western Baptist 4-1, then to Pacific 4-1, then the final game was lost against Albertson 2-1. The team lacked the intensity they needed to win in both games. "We were mentally out of the game," remarked junior Brian Murphy, "We played with no intensity." Kevin Saul, who scored the only goal against AC of I said, "We played with confidence after having a good week of practice, but we had a few bad breaks and came up a little bit short." A disappointed Coach Diehl reflected on the season, "We were a better team than we showed. We had good talent, but a lack of confidence kept us from showing what we could do on the field."

For the 94-95 year, the team hoped to return with a strong nucleus of players, plus several redshirt players also joining the team on the field. Coach Diehl expressed excitement about the possibilities of the future year's team, although they would be losing key players Carlos Antras,

Mike Wood, and Rob Lawler. The focus for next year will be developing pride in the soccer program. Coach Diehl's final comment was to "stick with the soccer team, because they are getting better and better with every season."

WITH A MIGHTY BLOW, Tim Whetstone puts the ball far away from the opposition's reach. Teamwork is the cornerstone of any winning team, and with it any goal is attainable.

BRAWL? No, Erik Quissell and Nathan Ehmer wrestle for control of the ball as they confront Albertsons College in one of NNC's confrontations with the rival school. No matter what the outcome, NNC's show of spirit and sportsmanship makes them true champions.

THE FINAL DRIVE. R.J. Mc Laren and Erik Quissell muster their last ounce of energy as they valiantly fight to strip the ball from a competitor. In addition to possessing finesse for the game, NNC players also exhibit great Christian spirit while playing.

THE BEST EVER

Experience was the key with the lady Crusaders this year with all six starters from last season returning and Head Coach Darlene Brasch beginning her fifth year with NNC volleyball. "Adding two junior college transfers to a potent offense containing the six starters from last year, we will be challenging every team in the conference," said Coach Brasch at the beginning of the season, and they did. Retuning starters included seniors Stephanie Arland and Brenda Cave; junior Terea Josephson; sophomores Melanie Trombley and Cheri Dailey. Joining the team were junior college transfers Michelle Miller and Michelle Barfknecht, both juniors.

The Crusaders had a record of 13-12 for the season, and were third place as they headed into the Conference Tournament. They had a tough start against Western Oregon State College and fell in three matches 2-15, 6-15, and 10-15. But they turned around to beat George Fox College 15-11, 15-12, and 15-12 with the help of Cheri Dailey and Terea Josephson's outstanding plays. The following weekend the Crusaders met up against Eastern Oregon, and the first match ended with a score of 15-10. They confirmed their victory with a 16-14 match to end the game. In a second set of matches against Southern Oregon College, the first match was won 15-3. They then fell 3-15, but turned around to secure a 16-14 victory, beating Southern Oregon on their home floor. After the win against Southern Oregon the Crusaders met up with Western Oregon, the holder of fifth place in the country. Despite their efforts, the Crusaders fell 15-17. They attempted a come back in the second match with a score of 16-14, but failed in the third and final match 11-15. After their loss to Western Oregon, NNC was victorious over George Fox 15-1 and 15-7, then were defeated again by Western Oregon a second time 5-15 and 1-15.

Due to their losses against Western Oregon, the Crusaders came out in second place. "I think that was the best we have ever played all season!" commented Kristie Pickens. Stephanie Arland was honored with the All-Conference Award for the second time in a row, and All-Conference Honorable Mentions were given to Terea Josephson and Cheri Dailey. The Crusaders' impressive season ended with a record of 19 wins and 15 losses. Out of the five years Coach Brasch has coached the Crusaders, this team was the first to go to Districts.

This season the Crusaders broke a record for the most aces against Idaho State. Michelle Miller tied the school record for the most blocks with 11, and Terea Josephson took the record for the most aces in a single match with 7. The season was a triumph for the Lady Crusaders. According to Coach Brasch, "this is the finest volleyball team in the history of NNC."

WALL OF DOOM. Stephanie Arland and Cheri Dailey create an impenetrable barrier, while Terea Josephson readies herself for the return that is bound to come. Much admiration is due for this year's team; unending physical training, and those uncomfortable knee pads are hardships they must endure.

TEA TIME. Cheri Dailey, Melanie Trombley, and Michelle Barfknecht bring home the biscuits, and dust off their opponents. This trio loves to feel the glorious rush of victory and does a super job keeping the fans on their toes.

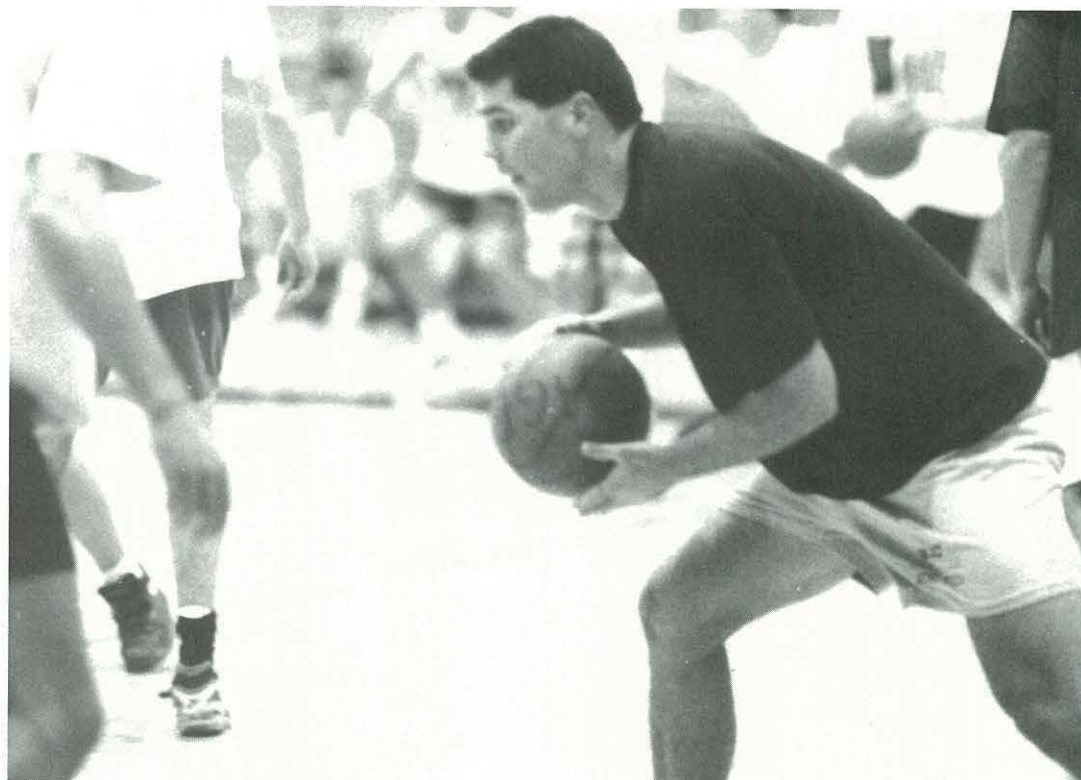

AIR ARLAND. Stephanie Arland matches Michael Jordan as she flies above competitors and smashes the ball toward a score. To be district bound, this year's team showed the skill and confidence.

DRIVING TOWARDS THE GOAL.
Joe Basura dribbles for a basket. The intramural basketball program has been a real success.

FROZEN IN TIME. . . Junior Keanan Williams stretches to block the shot while competing in an intramural games. Backing his teammate, Brian Butkus guards his opponenet.

IT'S ONLY INTRAMURAL. Competitive Karen Larson seeks to join Michael Jordan in retirement as she spews forth a last minuet desperation shot.

A new term brings with it the beginning of yet another intramural basketball season. The sign-ups for second term were record-breaking! More than forty teams were put together, which made more than 300 players. This was by far the largest turn-out intramurals had in over three years.

The teams were split into A, B, C league, and Women's league. To start the season off, in the A league, the Hoosiers and the Hickory Huskers battled it out, but finally the Huskers won 77 to 69. 3-Peat triumphed over the Older Guys 62 to 56. The 6 Studs and a Dud beat JV 56 to 46.

In the B league, the Fab 5 and Pickens fought it out, and Fab 5 won 55 to 49. Late Night won over High Five'n 27 to 44. Q stomped Faculty 70 to 48. Bennett was wiped out by Whetstone 20 to 79. Peppley overcame Gelations 54 to 44, and Mitchell slid by Richey 58 to 52.

In the C league, Ray Gibler put McDougal over the top to overcome Harvey 44 to 43. TOTC (The Other Team Cheats) lost to the Flying Band 23 to 58. Ball Bashers were defeated by X-Men 33 to 38. Huckleberry beat TOTC 43 to 32, and the Skins scraped by Hoser 45 to 40. The Snappers conquered the Ducks 38 to 30.

On the women's side Hadden and Tao Pao struggled, but Hadden pulled through with a 16 to 12 victory. All-Stars beat Williams 36 to 26. Weidman defeated Graham 28 to 30. Crow smashed the Wild Knights 56 to 16, and the Hasbeens won the game against Sarah by forfeit.

Because of the new rule concerning forfeits, a couple of teams were eliminated as the season got under way. JV, an A league team and Sarah/Shawna from the Women's league were eliminated for forfeiting more than three times. Once the season was under way, 3-Peat came out strong as the favorite in the A league, but soon to follow were the 6 Studs and a Dud, passing up 3-Peat. They were the best team in the A league going into the tournament. Fab 5 dominated their B league. In league C, there were two teams who won all their games. Team Skins and McDougal were both seeded number one in their league. In the Women's league, the All-Stars by far outshone the rest.

During tournament time, things began to heat up as the 6 Studs and a Dud came up against their rivals 3-Peat in the A league championship game after the Huskers forfeited. 6 Studs and a Dud overcame 3-Peat to secure their A league championship title. The top two seeds in each B league received ties for their first game in the tournament. Whetstone's first game was won against Hi-Five'n 70 to 48. Peppley slid by Richey 57 to 53. The championship game in the B league was Whetstone against Peppley. Whetstone prevailed as the B league champion 39-44. In the words of Jay Tegethoff and Will Cook, "hustle and heart were the right combination for the B league Champions." In the C league, the X-Men upset the Snappers 46 to 44, which put the X-Men up against McDougal in the championships. McDougal victored and claimed the C league 68-39. In the women's league Crow slid by Graham 37 to 39 in the last seconds of the game to take the Women's division championship.

MAKIN' WAVES....Sheldon Mc Lain keeps the action moving with a smooth cut to the hoop. This was Mc Lain's second year as a starting guard.

"ETETE!" Emiko Etete e,lbowing the block, is a junior from London. This forward has been a real core part in the Crusader's sucess.

SLAM. 6'6" Senior Joel Marion slam dunks that ball for two points. Marion, an award winning player, has been a terrific asset to the NNC basketball team. He will be genuinely missed.

MAKING MOVES THE

The 1993-94 men's basketball team faced a tough pre-season schedule. Coach Ed Weidenbach stated, "That was the toughest pre-season schedule since I have been here, and probably the toughest in years." But, the team proved they could handle anything because, according to Weidenbach, the team had "depth."

This year's team had a good mixture of returning players. Rolando Garcia moved from the two guard to the point. Sheldon McClain took over for Garcia at the off guard position, proving an excellent defensive player with great ball handling skills. Emiko Etete moved away from the basket and saw some time at the three and four spots. Again Etete was a very strong athlete with unbelievable quickness. Joel Marion was the team's strong rebounder and put in solid defense at the forward position. Eric Spencer came back quicker and became more of an offensive threat. Justin

Marion rebounded from the guard spot and was strong defensively. Todd Schumacher, a junior college transfer, played point guard and battled for the back up spot behind Garcia, but soon proved himself. Chad Herron was another transfer. His amazing three-point ability was his main role for the team, and it pulled them out of the hole at crucial times. The Crusaders had a variety of talent, but, as Coach Weidenbach said, "There is a better unity within the relationships with the players. This is vital because we couldn't have made it to the level we did if we weren't all in it together." Weidenbach called this year's team, "the best group we've had in the two years I've been here."

In the first week, the team travelled to Montana. The Saders narrowly beat Carroll 62-60 and Montana Tech 68-65, making their first wins the first victories over Montana schools on the road in over 13 years. Next, the Crusaders downed Rocky Mountain College 68-59 and the Point Loma Crusaders 101-75 during Homecoming week. The team moved on to edge out Western Oregon 81-80 in overtime. The following night was easier: Western Baptist went down 84-73, improving NNC's league record to 3-0 and placing them first in the Cascade Conference.

Defense was the key for most of the Crusaders' success, but against Albertson College of Idaho, the lack of defense keyed the win for the Coyotes 64-54. NNC kept Cascade Conference hopes alive with wins at Concordia and George Fox. The Crusaders edged out Concordia 91-89 in overtime before crushing George Fox 100-72. Concordia was the fifth overtime game NNC played this year, winning four out of five.

The Crusaders blasted George Fox for the second time in two weeks 72-49, then crushed Concordia again 74-53. The team's defense stifled George Fox, while NNC's offense went unanswered. Chad Herron tied an NNC school record with seven three-pointers in a game in the win over Concordia. Next, the Saders avenged their loss to Eastern Oregon 91-78. The team had five players in double figures. The Crusaders then beat Southern Oregon 96-67, their eighth win in a row. AC of I's previous loss against Southern Oregon moved NNC into sole possession of first place in the Cascade Conference.

The 21st ranked Saders earned their spot in the championship game with a 116-100 victory over Eastern Oregon. NNC broke their four-game streak of losses to their arch-rival, beating AC of I 81-64. Later, NNC pounded Western Baptist 84-60, and didn't stop there. They defeated second-place Western Oregon 96-85. The win made it the 11th straight for the Saders, who finished their regular season 14-2 in league play and 21-7 overall.

Earning their 11th seed in the NAIA National Tournament, the Crusaders vanquished all comers until the final four, where they were tired out by the eventual champions from Eureka.

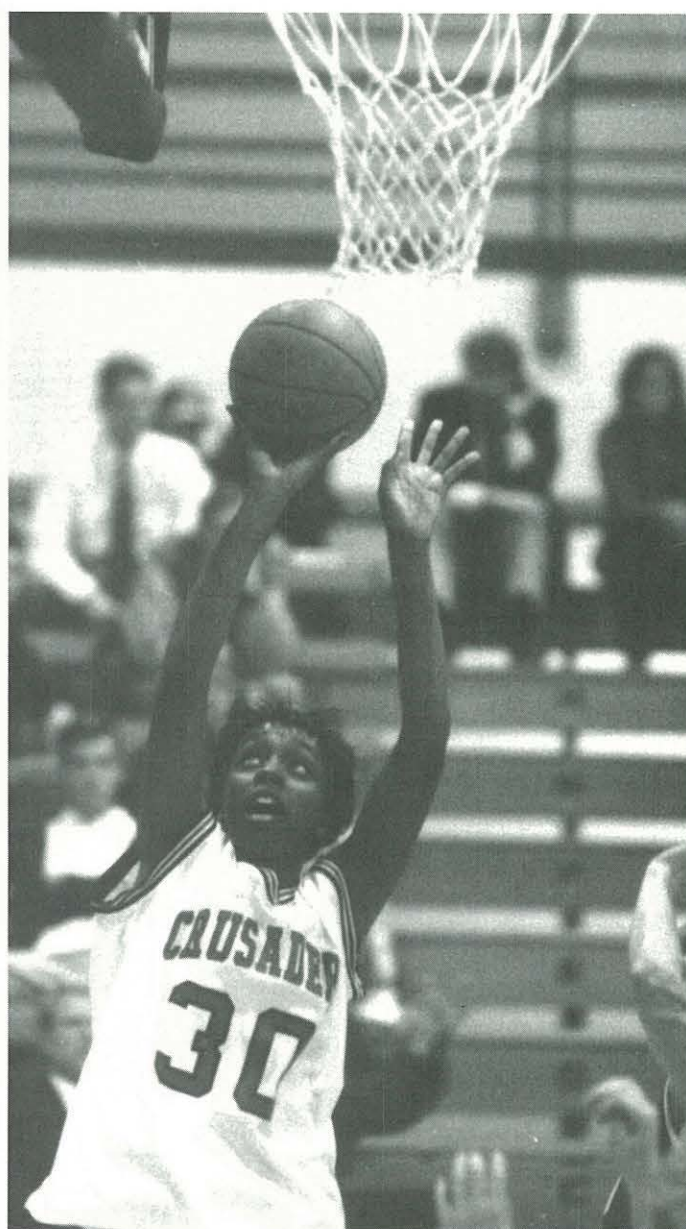

UP, UP AND AWAY. Point guard Mary Kessel shoots for the score. This year Kessel was voted "Best Defender" and broke the single season assist record.

UP FOR THE COUNT... Freshman Jennifer Meyers stretches above her opponent to make the two points. Myers is one of the five freshmen defining this year's Lady Crusaders.

SCORE! Sophomore Donna Knight reaches to make the lay in for the Lady Crusaders home game. This was Knight's second year as a Sader basketball participant.

The Lady Crusaders basketball team began what they thought to be a season resulting in the National Tournament, and they were right. They hoped to pick up where they left off last season, and with nine returning players and strong recruits, the momentum from last season was well under way. The returning players from last year's team brought back experience.

Senior Guard Kristi Chatterton, who received district and conference honors last year returned as the play caller. Junior Mary Kessel also returned as a guard. Giving the team height were returning sophomores Kathy Kyle at 6'1" and Donna Knight at 5'11". Other returning players were Becky Woods, Bobby Jungert, Lisa Schram, Jennie Fowler, and Stephanie Arland. Arland received honors last season as honorable mention All American for NAIA Division II.

Coach Schmidt really looked forward to the help from his newcomers too. Sandra Van Langen, who came from the Netherlands, played at the post. Tara Jensen, from Boise, also played at post. And joining the team at guard were Jennifer Myers, Erica Walton, and Ellen Duncan.

The Lady Crusaders opened their season winning two out of three games and placed second in the West One Invitational. Behind their strong defense, the ladies defeated Eastern Oregon 65-45. The victory over EOSC moved the Sadlers into the tournament final against Lewis and Clark. The ladies were unable to overcome Lewis and Clark and fell 76-66. Then, the Lady Sadlers upped their record to 4-1 with a win over Carroll College and Montana Tech. Kristi Chatterton led the Crusader with her career performance, helping NNC to win 80-68. The team then faced Montana Tech for the second time in a week, and found themselves down 28-37 at half time, but turned themselves around and pulled out a tight victory, 65-62.

The ladies extended their winning streak to five games and improved their season record to 6-1. The Crusaders pounded CSI 89-61. The Saders were led in scoring by Donna Knight with 17 points. In game two of Homecoming weekend, the ladies pulled off a win against Whitman College 62-52. The Lady Crusaders were then ranked tenth in the NAIA Division II poll. The ladies opened league play at George Fox with a victory of 66-59. Donna Knight led the team with 19 points and 11 rebounds. The ladies then thrashed Western Baptist College 89-49. Kessel said, "We really played well as a team and team unity is good, and our confidence was really high."

The ladies improved their Cascade Conference record to 3-0 with a solid victory over Concordia College. That victory put the Crusades in sole possession of first place in the Cascade Conference, and brought the team to 15-2 for the season.

Unfortunately, the Sadlers lost two of the three games played on their longest road trip, putting their record at 4-2 in conference play and 16-4 overall. Opening the road trip, the team beat Eastern Oregon State College 80-69. The ladies then fell to Southern Oregon 92-86 and again to Western Oregon State College 59-46. The Lady Crusaders clinched a playoff spot and found themselves in second place in the Cascade Conference.

In the game against Western Oregon, the ladies jumped ahead and held on to win 80-65. Mary Kessel broke an NNC record and set a new mark for assists in a season with 161. Kristi Chatterton set the school record for career scoring; she had a career of 1,428 points.

In the game against Southern Oregon, the team fell short and lost 82-76. But, on their last regular season road trip, the Lady Crusaders overpowered Concordia 83-43. The victory put the team at 21-6 overall and 9-3 in the Cascade Conference. The Lady Sadlers then defeated third place George Fox at home, 73-64. The win marked the first round of the playoffs for the national women's tournament in Monmouth, Oregon.

READY FOR THE STRIKE. Sophomore Todd Tomlinson catches and Bret Skagerberg umps at an intramural softball game during the spring.

The intramural softball league got off to a great start with lots of people signed up to play. As the season got underway, it turned out that there were many big talkers but quite a few no-show-ers.

Some of the players really got into it. They dug in their closets and found their old cleats and batting gloves. One person even went out and bought a pair of cleats just for the softball season. Other people could care less. They were out in their Sunday best doing everything they could not to get dirty. These people often did not even have gloves and had to borrow them from the other team. It was great seeing everyone so involved.

Some of the teams put a lot of practice time in before the games had even begun, which helped many participants to improve their rusty or never-used skills. Some practiced sliding and greatly improved from running and falling onto the base, to deciding not to slide at all. Others practiced catching balls and progressed from completely missing the catch, to using their bodies to stop the ball.

The pitchers had some competition going within their position. They watched each other like hawks, evaluating who was better than whom. Each pitcher had his/her own little quirks. Some of them always bounced the ball off of the plate. Some found that they could pitch better if they stood about five steps to the left of the mound. Others discovered that if they pitched it high enough it might make it over the plate. To each his own--the creativity was inspiring.

The coaches should not be overlooked either. Although coaches were more common on the girls' teams, they worked as if they were straight from the major leagues, investing a great deal of time and effort. Many coaches prayed with their teams, knowing it was their only chance. Others made the teams run laps when they played poorly. (It seemed to boost a coach's ego seeing all those girls running at his command. More likely those girls were running away from him.) One particularly impressive and stately coach, while showing his team the proper way to catch a fly ball, did a twenty-foot dive and sacrificed his thumb. After surgery and several casts (one into which he spilled orange juice), he was still with his team. Now if that isn't the love of Christ, what is?

The games that were actually played were very intense, with the baseman and runner often cracking jokes together as the catcher quietly teased and/or mocked the batter. There was a lot of team unity, but sometimes there was too much, because often signs of unity would appear between two teams that were supposed to be rivals. Even the umpires were calling balls that were obviously strikes in the hopes of getting a date with the batter.

Intramural volleyball this spring was great! It was held on Monday nights, as usual, beginning April 11 and ending with the championship games on May 16. The games were played in the Montgomery Field House from 7:00p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Three courts were used for regular play--the North and South courts on the main floor and the East court on the East balcony.

Six A-league teams and seven B-league teams signed up this year. According to Brent Peterson, freshman, competition was good in A-league. There were some teams that had the edge with experience. These teams consisted of girls in Varsity Volleyball and guys also. Due to night classes and rehearsals, forfeits were a common occurrence, reducing competition. Overall, the games were fair and full of excitement.

In the championship games BSI, led by Darlene Brasch, came out on top for the A-league. SEC, led by Christa Epley won the competition for the B-league.

There was a tight match between Staff-n-Stuff, led by Glenn Smith, and Hammer's Team, led by Joel Marion, to get to the championship game. Joel Marion used his infamous "windmill spike," which was very difficult to return, to intimidate the opposition. Staff-n-Stuff won though, entering the championship against BSI. BSI was actually a team that entered not expecting to win. Darlene Brasch said "It was something fun to do with our spouses and it was not only enjoyable, but fun to win the whole tournament." BSI consisted of three couples, John and Darlene Brasch, Art and Rhonda Sprague, and Joel and Trish Anderson. Todd Frye was also a valuable asset to their team. The final match was competitive. Art Sprague, in the second game, was determined not to have to play a third game, dominating the net and blocking every hit. He was voted MVP by his teammates.

Wipe Out, led by Taunya Mc Lean, made it to the championship game facing SEC, led by Christa Epley in B-league. They lost the first game but came back fighting and won the second game. SEC won the final game winning the championship after an exciting match.

A Fall intramural volleyball tournament also took place this year before the weather started turning cold. The tournament provided three different dimensions: sand, grass and floor. A point system was kept based on victories of each dimension. The first place team consisted of Glenn Smith, Al Sjogren, Vance Kellogg, Kim Riggs and Carla Beebe. The second place team consisted of Scott Englund, Nate Pickens, Misty Linn and Megan Freeman.

Intramural volleyball provided a rest from our daily schedules to come and compete and have fun with our friends. We want to thank BSI for the championship T-shirts and Glenn Smith for organizing the events. We hope to see even more people signed up in the future.

"Hey Billy!" The Crusader Baseball team had many high expectations after being so close to the playoffs the year before. In the 1992-93 season, it came down to the last series against Concordia. If the Saders had won 2 of 3, they would have gone on to the playoffs. In this, the 1993-94 season, the Saders again had to win two of three against Concordia. However, the rival went on to sweep the Crusaders and keep them from the playoffs for a second year in a row.

The year actually began at the end of last season. It was the start of what was hoped to be the beginning of a new era of Crusader Baseball. This was the breaking ground for the new NNC baseball field. Coach Brian Muir worked countless hours to make this happen. During the summer of '93, Corey Litsey (senior left fielder) and Muir labored to prepare the field for upcoming games. Finally, the outline of the field was finished. Grass was ready to be planted after long hours of picking up rocks and leveling dirt.

But wait! If they planted grass, the field would still not have been ready to play in time for the season. Thanks to President Hagood, a way was found for the field to be sodded. The president asked, "What's the point of having a field if you can't play?" and came up with the means to complete the facility.

After completion, the field was dedicated to Elmore W. Vail, a former NNC player and coach.

The Crusaders' season had its ups and downs. One of the more exciting times was the trip to California over Spring Break. Being a native of the LA area, Mike LaJocies advised, "Don't get lost in California!" So of course, the team did.

The week began against Coach Muir's alma mater, Azusa Pacific. Junior pitcher Mike Mortimer pitched on of his best games of the year. The 5 to 6 loss broke the Saders' hearts; "I wish I had my best stuff going. I think we would have won," said a frustrated Mike Mortimer.

The next day the Crusaders went to the middle of nowhere to find the Masters College. It was worth the trip. They came away with a victory by junior pitcher Joel Nye and sophomore pitcher Nat Hoison, who came in and slammed the door shut for a comeback. Hawaii Pacific was the next opponent, and the worst team NNC faced on the trip. Somehow Hawaii came away with the win.

The eighth ranked Point Loma Crusaders were the next stop. They were confident they would walk all over NNC. After a 7-2 lead, it looked like an easy win for PLNC, but NNC battled back to only a two point deficit, 7-5, with bases loaded in the top of the seventh. Although they could not quite push across any more runs, NNC made the opponent work for the win.

Due to bad weather, the California Baptist game was rained out, so the team had a day off to get ready to play an NCAA Division III California

Lutheran. Chris Falke started the game, but did not have his usual stuff. Mike Mortimer came in and pitched eight strong innings for a well deserved victory. As senior shortstop Pat Swapp commented, "We are crossing the River of Mediocrity to the Peninsula of Success."

The year saw some surprising people step up and do a great job. Utility player Travis Tindal was the most improved with a B.A. of .308, 5 HR, and the highest number of doubles on the team. Coach Muri comments, "It was only a short time before Travis stepped up his level of play." Jason Chan, a great leader on and off of the field, won the Bulldog award for the second straight year. Chan remarked, "We had high expectations (for the season), but were disappointed with the outcome. These things happen."

HITTING FOR NNC. Freshman David Wallace swings with nice form at one of the season's home games. David Wallace plays the positions of short stop and 2nd baseman.

THE FACE OF DETERMINATION. Pitcher Phil Muir swings back his left arm and whizzes the ball across the plate. Along with this new recruit came a brand new playing field, the Elmore W. Vail baseball field.

READY FOR THE BUNT? Shortstop Pat Swapp gets real low to bunt the baseball. Swapp has played a major role on NNC's team according to Coach Brian Muir.

THE MATCHMAKERS

The Lady Crusader's Tennis team began the season with five returning players and four new players. Kristen Smyth, a senior, played the number one doubles and singles position on the team, as she did the three years previous. Smyth provided the leadership for the 1993-94 team, along with Eva Antras. Eva had a great season and strongly improved her game. Hers was a strong contribution to the team. Jenny Rayborn, a junior veteran team-member, was a rock solid player, one of the top four on the team. Maite Antras, a returning junior, was the most consistent player for the Lady Crusaders. Michelle Stephens, the only returning sophomore, made a great impact on the team with her improvements throughout the year.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Jennifer Rayborn displays great form in her return.

IT TAKES CONCERNTRATION. Sophomore Michelle Stephens prepares for an oncoming ball. Along with Tennis success, Michelle was elected Miss Culver for 1993-94.

THE ANTRAS SISTERS. International students Maite and Eva Antras were a great asset to the NNC Women's Tennis team. The Antras family came to NNC from Barcelona, Spain.

MAKING STRIDES

The NNC track team had an outstanding year, filled with achievement. The Crusaders had a great deal of talent in leadership which was displayed in team captains Kristie Pickens and Jeff Jackson.

Two school records were broken this year as the athletes worked toward their goal of participating in the national meet. Sarah Marion was one of those record-breakers: she beat her own school record in the hurdles. Justin Marion was the other team member who broke a record, also his own, in the high jump. Justin was tied for the school record, and, in fact, bettered his own record twice during the course of the season. Sarah and Justin, along with another record holder, Kim Hazelbaker, made their way to California for the national meet.

Kim Hazelbaker returned from nationals as third in the nation in the discus. This made her All-American in the discus, and she was an academic All-American as well. Justin Marion placed eighth in the high jump, and Sarah Marion made fourteenth in both the long jump and the high hurdles.

The track team had a great number of talented athletes, most of whom planned to return for 1994-95. The team was lead by four seniors, Melanie Krumm, who was a second year manager, Becky Nichols, Kim Hazelbaker, and Kristie Pickens. Sarah Marion, Scott Wilde, Nate Pickens, Jeff Jackson, Reid Kornstad, John Duncan, and manager Chris Barrett were the juniors on the team. Sophomores were Syl Hunt, Justin Marion, Zach Smith, Jason Rossback, Debi Carter, Kim Crow, Gina Miller, Tessa Phillips, and Vondell Sheets. This year's freshmen were Robby Robinson, Jennifer Myers, Emily Evans, Ellen Duncan, Amber Crumrine, Josh Gates, Will Haskins, Brian Higgins, and Rich Sturm. The track coaches in their respective specialties were: Coach Paul Taylor, running; Coach Shannon Miller, jumping and hurdling; and Coach Larry "Mr. Clean" Crosley, throwing. The coaches did an excellent job encouraging and directing the natural talent their athletes possessed.

At the spring sports banquet Nate Pickens and Sarah Marion were voted the most valuable on the team. The most improved awards went to John Duncan and Ellen Duncan. Lastly, co-captains Kristie Pickens and Jeff Jackson were voted most inspirational players at the end of the season.

"I ask on their behalf; I do not ask on behalf of the world, but of those whom Thou hast given me; for they are Thine; and all things that are mine are Thine, and Thine are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And I am no more in the world; and yet they themselves are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name, the name which Thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are one." Amen.

Colophon

The 77th volume of the Northwest Nazarene College Oasis yearbook was printed by the Jostens Publishing Company, Visalia, California. Our Idaho Jostens representative was Scott Brown located in Twin Falls, Idaho. Our in-plant representative was Kristi Morgan located in Visalia, California. All layout and copy was composed and typed on IBM computers with the Pagemaker 5.0 and Word Perfect 5.0 programs. Palantino and Lucidia Blackletter fonts were used in all copy and headlines. Artwork was sketched by Jodi Silvers and Matt Mc Caslin. All pages were part of the Jostens' Yeartech program. The book was designed with a true life cover and Tempo 199 Rich Red endsheets with artwork by Matt Mc Caslin. Mug and Senior photos were taken by Educational Media staff, particularly Andy Lockhart. The book contained four multiples of Tempo 222 Burgundy spot color and two multiples of four color. The yearbook was printed in size nine including 900 copies of the book with 232 pages.

The Closing

Romans 8:37

"No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us." Paul reminds the Romans in chapter eight that they could be more than conquerors through Jesus, through His love.

This second year at NNC has been such an incredible time of growth for me, along with many of you I am sure. God has been teaching me about what true love is from I Corinthians 13. He has opened up my eyes to see others as they are and love them for who they are. I have been so inspired by the new people God has shown to me. This summer I am excited as I will be traveling to East Africa for Work and Witness. I am excited to see how God's love will be channeled through me.

God has also taught me about faith, blind faith. He showed to me Jeremiah 29:11 and promised me security in my future plans. For a lot of us the future is pretty scary at times no matter what we plan to do. What I have been shown though, is that I do not need to worry about tomorrow, especially if my life is committed to God. With God our options are so numerous. I truly believe our dreams can come true!

Lastly God has shown me that He can conquer my pain and regrets and worries. Time passes and God heals. I have come away from past pain feeling like more than a conqueror because I have come away with more compassion, more patience, and more experience.

I would like to thank all the people who supported me during this past school year. There are too many to name, but you know who you are. Congratulations to a terrific yearbook staff. We did it!
