South Korea

The Church of the Nazarene began work in South Korea in 1948. Korea Nazarene University, in Cheonan, was founded in 1954 and accredited in 1992. The university started with three majors in the theology department. Today, there are an additional thirteen majors related to rehabilitation and special education. South Korea is known for its green, hilly countryside dotted with cherry trees, its coastal fishing villages, sub-tropical islands, and high-tech cities such as Seoul. ## Korea National District ordains 36 pastors at its 67th District Assembly

The Korea National District Church of the Nazarene held an ordination service on 12 April 2022. The service was held during the 67th District Assembly. This is the first gathering of the entire district after two years of being in the COVID-19 pandemic. 36 ordinands waited for this special day to be ordained as elders of the church.

Mireu Kim, a missionary serving in Thailand, traveled back to Korea for the 67th Korea National District Assembly to physically attend his ordination. He said “The ordination ceremony was a particularly meaningful time for the Holy Week. “I meditated on the words of Galatians 2. Now I really pray that the Lord will live in me and spread His name in the land of Thailand.”

After the ordination service, he and his family returned to Thailand with renewed commitment to nurture local leaders and raise Christlike disciples in Thailand. The Kims will pioneer the development of ministry in the northeastern part of Thailand.

The waiting was difficult for the 36 ordinands, but it was all worth the wait. They have experienced God's grace even greater during this challenging time. Now, as ordained ministers they are once again assured that God was, is, and will be with them as they continue to fulfill the mission of making Christlike disciples in the nations.
