Faculty Fine Arts Program 8 Tonight

James H. Carkhuff, bass-baritone, and Ruby Sanner and T. C. Leckie, pianists, will be featured in a fine arts program to be presented tonight at 8 p.m. in the college chapel.

Double E. Hill, chairman of the division of fine arts, announced the concert program today.

Carkhuff will be heard in four numbers including "Come raggio di sole" by Antonio Caldara. His (Continued on Page 2)

The Church College

I like colleges that nestle
In quiet little towns,
And seem to offer something more
Than credits, caps and gowns.

I like classes filled with friends
Who have a smile for me;
I don't like profs who know me as
Row 31 Seat 3.

I hate to meet a former prof's
Unrecognized stare;
I like the kind who knows your name,
Your hopes, your love affair.

I like church-college profs who teach
Like wise, inspired crusaders;
Who take the time to read your themes
And don't hire student graders.

I like colleges which strive to learn,
Years later where you are;
Yes, even tho you've never been
A campus queen or star.

A mammoth institution holds
Within its office space,
Along with proof of my degree
A photo of my face.

The most it knows about me is
My city, birth and class.
I like my old church-college best;
She doesn't think en masse.

She'll gaily cheer each grad's career
With faith that's optimistic;
To her a former student is
No musty old statistic.

'Handel's Messiah' To Be Presented December 11th

By Phyllis Hartley

Season's greetings will be extended in the 21st annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by the NNC Philharmonic Choral Society in College Church, December 11, 1955 at 8:00 p.m.

Approximately 150 singers will participate, according to Warnie Tippitt, professor of voice and director of the Crusader Choir. A 25 piece orchestra including both students and community musicians will be directed by Prof. John Eby, a member of the music faculty and director of the college band and orchestra. The accompanists will be Double E. Hill at the piano and Mrs. Alline Swann, organist.

The soloists, all of whom have been featured in previous years, are: Darlene Gentry Emerson, soprano; Lois Barton Chaffee, contralto; Richard Lindbloom, tenor; and James Carkhuff, bass; Mrs. Emerson, now of Moscow, Idaho, is a 1954 graduate with an A. B. in music. This is her third consecutive appearance as soprano soloist. Mrs. Chaffee, wife of the president of Boise Junior College, will sing the contralto solos for the third time at NNC.

For Mr. Lindbloom, a 1948 graduate, this year will mark his fourth appearance as tenor soloist at NNC. Living in Boise, Mr. Lindbloom is active as music director at Boise First Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. Carkhuff, a 1952 graduate and now professor of voice, will sing the bass solos for the second time at NNC. He has also taken solo parts in "Messiah" presentations at the College of Idaho and the University of Oregon. Mr. Carkhuff directed last year's presentation.

This Yuletide event is sponsored by the Nampa Ministerial Association.

Represents Idaho

Joe Michel was chosen, Wednesday, as Idaho's candidate for a Rhodes scholarship.

He will be in Spokane, Washington tomorrow where he will compete with students from five other states for one of the coveted scholarships. Four students from the six-state area—Idaho, Washington, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon and Wyoming—will become Rhodes scholars.

Thirty-two American students in all—four from each of eight six-state districts—will go to Oxford University, England, for three years of study under the Rhodes scholarship program.

Michel and William Dale Olson, Idaho State College, were examined Thursday morning at Boise. Michel, NNC senior, planning a teaching career, was chosen to go to Spokane. He is believed to be the first NNC student to represent Idaho in the Rhodes scholarship competition.

Members of the Idaho examining committee were Dr. Donald R. Theophilus, University of Idaho president, chairman; Dr. Robert S. Smith, secretary, and J. L. Gibson, Jr., Salt Lake City.

Michel's home is in Monrovia, Calif.

At graduation from high school at Monrovia, he was given a $1000 scholarship to Pomona College. He gained leadership at both Pomona College and NNC.

SPECIAL TO JOE MICHEL

The students and faculty of NNC are praying for you while you are in Spokane. Congratulations and best wishes.

Debate Team Rated Excellent

Professor M. A. Wilson, head of the department of speech, revealed Thursday that NNC debaters and speakers have received their ratings from the Columbia Valley tournament at Pullman, Washington and the Western Speech association at Tacoma, Wash.

A number of NNC students participated in the two events but ratings were not made known until this week.

A debate team composed of Jim Ridgeway, junior from Roseburg, Ore., and Jim Martin, junior from Hammond, Indiana, received a rating of Excellent at the Tacoma tournament. Two other NNC debate teams rated average. Prof. Wilson said that the debate teams are coached by Rev. Eugene Stowe.

Carol Russell, Nampa freshman, received a first in poetry reading and a third in dramatic reading. Norma Phillips, sophomore from Lewiston, won first in extemporaneous speaking. Jim Martin placed third in his section of extemporaneous speaking. Martin and Ridgeway each received a second in impromptu and George Dillon, junior from Nyssa, Ore., rated a third in impromptu.

Prof. Wilson accompanied the teams to the tournaments.

College Degrees Pay Off

During his lifetime a college graduate can expect to receive about $100,000 more income than the average high school graduate, according to a recent report by the Bureau of Census based on the 1950 male population. The direct and indirect costs of a college education were roughly estimated at $9000.

Census data indicates that an investment in an additional year of schooling of each additional level is accompanied, on the average, by an annual increment rise from $150 a year at the elementary level to about $500 a year at the college level.

CHS Presents "Tom Sawyer's Morning"

"Tom Sawyer's Morning", a one-act comedy by Samuel French, was presented in the NNC chapel on Dec. 8 by the College High speech class.

Tom Sawyer, a typical American boy of twelve years and the leading character in the play, was portrayed by Jerry Hull. Other cast members were: Lucy Cotner as Becky Thatcher; Larry Hull as Joe Harper; Bill James as Jim; Avera Lyda as Aunt Polly. Dave Jackson as the News Boy; Phil Frish as Ben Rogers; Milton Alexander as Billy Fisher; Donovan Olmstead as Johnnie Miller; Barbara Keen as Josie Miller and Keith Wright as Huckleberry Finn.

In charge of staging and properties were Richard Nees and Allen Lair.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. May Bunts, school speech teacher.

NNC on TV This Afternoon

Miss Helen Wilson, director of college publicity, said today that NNC will be on television at 2:45 this afternoon for the regular monthly telecast over KBOI-Channel Two.

This month's program will feature members of the home economics department. Ramona Lloyd and Mary Lou Oldenkamp will be featured as TV cooks and members of the tailoring class will model suits and coats which they have made. Dell Chumley will act as narrator.

Bring Christmas To Others

Would you like to play Santa Claus this Christmas to some underprivileged little boy or girl who lives around N.N.C.? No, you don't have to put on a red suit, whiskers, and a hearty laugh—all you have to do is bring some toy—either new or used, little or big—to the Toys for Tots barrel which will be placed in the Administration Building all next week.

This year for the first time Kiwanis Club, of which Circle K is a member, is cooperating with the United States Marine Corps Reserve in the annual Toys for Tots drive which each Christmas brightens the lives of many needy youngsters. New toys, as well as old ones which can be fixed up, are collected, prepared, and distributed in localities throughout all parts of the United States.

So if you have a used toy that you've outgrown, how about donating it? Or why not splurge on some inexpensive toy which might put a light in some child's eyes and a smile on his lips? You'll get a real kick out of it, so plan now to participate in this campus-wide, nation-wide project! (If you have any questions, ask Max Urwin, president of Circle K.)

How to Lose Friends and Irritate People

By Helen Harmaning

Are you tired of people and can't stand to be around them? Then make yourself obnoxious. Friends aren't necessary, so break all bonds of friendship.

Follow these simple rules and your goal of losing friends and irritating people will be reached surprisingly soon.

Refuse to help anyone no matter how long you've known him or how desperately he needs your assistance. Always give your refusal in a blunt no!

Don't hesitate to criticize others behind their backs. Don't just give the facts, add "juicy" details to make the facts sound good.

Always line up on the other side in any dispute. No matter how you feel personally about the subject, challenge everything others say. This attitude produces many exciting arguments.

If you drive a car, don't pick up anyone, even if he is loaded with packages. He needs the exercise. Be sure to wave to him as you pass.

Both Leckie and Mrs. Sanner are students of Mrs. Swann.

Coyotes Roll to 70-63
Win Over Crusaders

The basketball encounter between NNC and the College of Idaho "Coyotes", Tuesday evening, put the first blemish on the record of Coach Orrin Hills' quintet by a score of 70-63.

The Coyotes, tall and scrappy, grabbed a four-point lead before NNC forward Jay Dean found the range. Midway in the first half Darrel Reisch and Duane Peppley tossed in three and two buckets, respectively to threaten the Coyotes with an 18-20 score. But soon afterward the visitors took a 10-point lead and raised it three for a total of 40-27 as the first half ended.

In the second half, the Crusaders, paced by the shooting of Jay Dean and rebounding of his brother Mickey, trimmed the lead to 57-59 but the late NNC rally fell short of overtaking the visitors.

Snappy ball-handling sparked a last minute College of Idaho stall which produced two points for Coach Yandle's quintet. Crusader Harold Weber scored on a fast break as time ran out. Both teams hit 26 field goals but the Coyotes had the edge in free throws, 18-11.

Crusader, Jay Dean, drives between Coyotes' Chuck Jenkins, No. 11, and Gary Moore, No. 10, to score with a left-handed hook shot. Dean was leading scorer for Tuesday night's encounter with 10 out of 19 field goals and 3 out of 5 free throws for a total of 23.

Last night the Crusaders invaded Caldwell's Kirkpatrick gym but were again turned back - by a

Experience and speed are two strong points of this year's College High School basketball squad, according to Trojan Coach, Virgil Vail.

Of the 13 players that make up the varsity team, four were starters on last year's squad that won 13 while losing seven. These are Bill James, 5-10, Don Olmstead, 6-1, Larry Hull, 6-0, and Jerry Hull, 6-0. Two other lettermen, Don Gould, 5-10, and Keith Wright, 5-11, are also back on the team this season.

Rounding out the varsity are five transfer students including Ray Hendrix, from Guatemala; Charles Yell, of Hood River, Ore.; Larry Gentry, from Montana; Alan Lair, of Boise, and Perry Winkle, Bellview, Wash. Two other players up from last year's junior varsity team, Bob Cook and Dave Jackson, complete the squad.

narrow margin, 64-63.

Again Dean lead in scoring, but shared the honors with Coyotes' Jenkins. Dean potted 9 out of 13 from the floor and 4 out of 8 from the foul line. Jenkins hit 9 out of 20 field goals and 4 out of 8 gift shots for a total of 22.

Dorm Councils Hold Combined Meeting

At a combined meeting of the dorm councils of Hadley, Morrison, and Chapman Halls, on November 14, the following was discussed: "Do we have a dating problem on our campus, and what can be done to improve the situation?"

Some of the ideas suggested were:

(1) The Student Faculty reception was changed this year, so more people could attend.

(2) A dating bureau could be established, where names would be confidential; only year in school and height would be presented. This idea would be for fun only, not for matching.

(3) To create better feeling between fellows and girls, girls should be encouraged not to refuse a fellow, unless it is necessary; fellows should consider dating for fun, not that everybody will think he is serious.

(4) Fellows and girls can strive alike to become better conversationalists; also each should strive to improve himself in other ways, such as appearance and manners.

(5) Blind dates can be successful because both parties realize the other person is merely having fun, not getting serious.

(6) Double dating is also a good way of getting acquainted, without the uncomfortableness of being alone.

(7) Fellows who are refused once or more should not get the idea that girls simply do not like them. Try, try again.

(8) The casualness of dating could be emphasized if more people did it.

(9) Both fellows and girls can break down prejudice by getting to know others better.

(10) Perhaps mixed groups and mixed group parties would help get kids acquainted and make them feel more at ease around the opposite sex.

(11) If occasions where everyone is expected to have a date were stressed now and then, more might date.
